Waiting and Trusting on God

Dear Friends,

Waiting. This is not something I do very well, but it is something that God calls His people to. Psalm 27:13-14 says, "Yet I am confident I will see the Lord's goodness while I am here in the land of the living. Wait patiently for the Lord. Be brave and courageous. Yes, wait patiently for the Lord."

As God's people we each wait on Him for different things. We wait for His return, we wait for injustice to be made right, we wait for healing, we wait for loved ones to turn their hearts towards Jesus, and especially now, many wait for God to meet their financial needs.

JR and I find ourselves right now waiting for God to provide funding for our departure to Budapest. We had both hoped, prayed, and asked God to miraculously get us there by January or soon after. However, God's timing is different than ours. We have had to postpone our departure date and now, we are again asking God to miraculously get us to Hungary by July 2011 or anytime this summer.

Although our hearts were disappointed we could not report in January, God did provide 5 plane tickets for our whole family to go to the Eastern European "Our God is Able" staff conference in Slovenia.

Although, we felt like it was a huge answer to prayer to attend the conference on January 21st—29th, the Lord still had other plans. Due to the diagnosis of shingles for myself, we discovered that there was a possibility of our children contracting chicken pox while we would be at the conference. Therefore, it was advised by our doctor not to fly and also not to attend the conference. As you can imagine, we were very disheartened.

As a family, we again were being asked by God to wait. This past Sunday at church, I was reminded of two things that Paul outlines for us in Romans 8: first, God's love never fails, and second, God makes all things work together for our good. Therefore, we are giving thanks and trusting God for bigger and better things.

Currently, we are 77% funded to go to Hungary. A summer report date to Budapest is more crucial because I will hopefully be teaching at the missionary school and need to be there by August. So, we ask you to pray for 2 things:

- Please pray for the staff in Slovenia at the conference. Pray for God to do big things in the hearts of these Eastern European staff. Pray the Lord increases their faith.
- Please pray our funding comes in so we can report to Budapest this summer.

As always, we are so grateful for your prayers and support!

With Much Love,
JR and Ingrid Peck
