We Made It!

Dear Friends,

What an adventure we have had. God has blessed us in so many ways that it's hard to pick just a couple things. Our move was so smooth and quick that it is really amazing.

Multiple missionaries already here in Budapest just shake their heads when we tell them about our arrival and say, "It just isn't supposed to work like that."

We left Phoenix early on the morning of July 12th. We flew to New Statues of the clan leaders who settled the land that would become Hungary.

York and from there to Budapest, arriving on the morning of the 13th. Our friends were there waiting to pick us up. They took us to their house and we took a short nap but they helped us stay awake so we could sleep at night.

On Thursday we signed the lease on our house and on Friday the movers brought our things. By Saturday we were moved in enough to stay in the house we are renting. By all accounts this was a record.

Since then we've learned how to get to the store, the office, the school and church. Those our are key locations and from there we will add more.

Going to the store is quite interesting. It's not easy when you can't read or talk to people. (Most grocery store employees don't speak English.)

We tried some butter that didn't taste too great. Our Hungarian tutor laughed as she told us it was shortening for cooking, not butter. We didn't feel as foolish when we heard about someone who thought they were eating SPAM and found out it was cat food.

There are many adjustments and new things to learn. We covet your prayers as we go through this process. A new country, new jobs, new friends and so many other things.

We couldn't be here without all of you being behind us. Thank you so much for your prayers and support.

Yours in Christ,
JR, Ingrid, Rachel, Hannah and Eddie

Prayer Praises:

- We were able to find all the appliances we needed and a great car. At $8 or more a gallon for gas, an efficient car is important.
- School has started and the kids are making friends and doing well.
- Picking up Hungarian is slow as it is very complicated. But we are learning and praise God as he helps us. Please keep praying for our ability to communicate.
