Youth at the Threshold of Life - Të Rinjtë në Prag të Jetës

Dear Friends,

Around Christmas of 2011 Jonida, a young Albanian student was invited to an even where should could learn about Christmas.

Albania is a culturally Muslim country. And for many years it was under communist dictators that tried to eliminate all religion. What most Albanian youth know about Christmas is limited to what they have seen in American movies.

An outreach in Tirana.

wanted to share her faith with others. This culminated in her inviting her cousins Orlanda and Anxhela to a summer camp where they too came to Christ.

As Orlanda grew and had the opportunity to share her faith, Orlanda's sister Armela came to faith.

God also used Jolinda and Hyrie to launch new ministries in 3 Albanian cities that had no Christians working with youth. God is building movements in Albania and it is incredibly exciting. With us, you are a part of it.

I really encourage you to go to our facebook page or web site and watch Jolinda' story in her own words.

The flag of Albania.

What Jonida learned was very interesting to her.

The following Spring Jonida was invited to a camp that included American teenagers that had come to Albania. Jonida was exposed to more Christian ideas and a few weeks later one of our Albanian staff led her and her cousing Hyrie to faith Christ. Like many young believers Jonida
